

A great big show and sale of antiques, vintage, upcycled crafts, art, furniture, home decor, handcrafted clothing and jewelry and so much more. Meet the editors of Country Living Magazine and their guests, attend seminars and how-to's, see artisan demonstrations, hear music, and gather ideas and inspiration.

The 2017 Country Living Fair in Nashville is presented by Country Living Magazine. The event offers visitors the opportunity to fully experience the "Country Living" lifestyle and meet the editors of Country Living just outside of Nashville, TN. In big barns, tents and outdoors the Tennessee Country Living Fair will be held rain or shine at the James E. Ward Ag Center (AKA The Wilson County Fairgrounds) in Lebanon.

Get ready for the best shopping ever—more than 200 booths of antiques, vintage, upcycled and hand-crafted goods. Featured vendors include Century Farmhouse Soaps, Earth Angels Studios, Findings@SummerHouse Jewelry, French Vanilla, Gathered Comforts, Red Door Antiques, Rough and Tumble Vintage, Scarlett Scales Antiques, and South Porch Antiques.

Meet Country Living magazine Editor-In-Chief Rachel Hardage Barrett; Country Living's Kitchen Stage & Main Stage feature the editors and their guests, plus book signings, and crafting and how-to demonstrations throughout the fair. There will be lots of live entertainment and music, not to mention some great food available, allowing you to eat lunch on your own without losing much all-important shopping/exploring time!

Fiddlers Grove Historical Village is located on the grounds of the James E. Ward Agricultural Center and is included in your admission to the Fair. Fiddlers Grove General Store will be open with refreshments and there will be quite a few working craftspeople throughout the village.

Plan now to be with us to enjoy a springtime Saturday guaranteed to inspire! Make your check payable to The RH Factor and mail to P.O. Box 41, Pulaski, TN 38478. Final payment is due by Friday, April 7, 2017.
