

August
30-31

Forty years ago, the world was stunned by the news of Elvis Presley's death. Since then, the legend of The King has grown to new heights and to commemorate this milestone anniversary, Elvis Presley Enterprises has unveiled an all-new, four-diamond hotel and state-of-the-art Visitor's Center at Graceland in Memphis. RH Factor plans to visit and see all that's new when we travel to The Bluff City August 24-25, 2017!

Elvis: The 40th Anniversary
All-New Memphis & Graceland Touring

Not only do we have rooms at the brand new Guest House at Graceland, but we take part in the all-new Elvis Experience, granting us an audio-guided tour of the mansion and new orientation film, visits to new museums on the property (Elvis The Entertainer Career Showcase, Elvis Discovery, a brand-new, expanded Elvis Car Museum and new tours of his two private planes), dinner at a new Elvis-themed restaurant and more.

Cost per person

Double- $459 Triple - $429
Quad - $419 Single - $525

After dinner, we're offering an optional excursion to Tunica, Mississippi for anyone who is interested.

Inclusive of roundtrip motorcoach, overnight at Guest House at Graceland, one dinner, one breakfast, Graceland Mansion Audio-Guided Tour with new orientation film, tour of Elvis' two airplanes, tour all-new Elvis car museum, tour Elvis: The Entertainer Career Showcase Museum, tour Elvis Discovery Exhibits, optional evening excursion to Tunica, MS, inclinator ride to top of The Pyramid, roundtrip baggage handling, all taxes & gratuities, and fully escorted.

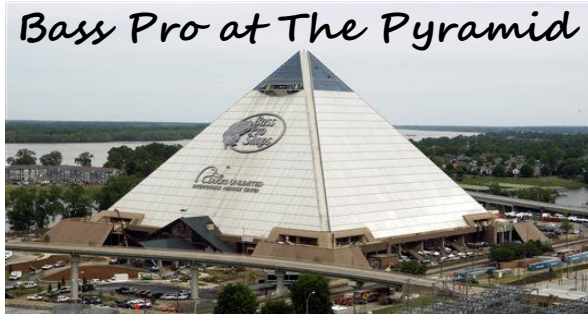

On Friday, we head downtown to see the ducks march at The Peabody Hotel, to pay a visit to the Rock & Soul Museum on Beale Street and to visit the all-new Bass Pro Shop at The Pyramid, with its many new exhibits, including the new Ducks' Unlimited Waterfowl Heritage Center. We've also included a ride to the tip-top of the Pyramid on the world's tallest free-standing elevator (28 floors!) for sweeping views of the Mississippi River Delta. We'll enjoy lunch on our own at Uncle Buck's Fishbowl and Grill in the Pyramid.

Be among the first to experience all these new, exciting attractions. You're bound to be entertained!
