

Radio City Christmas Spectacular starring The Rockettes

Tuesday, December 6, 2005

Following a one-year absence, The Radio City Music Hall Rockettes bring their legendary Christmas Spectacular back to Nashville, Tennessee's Grand Ole Opry House and on Tuesday, December 6, First Friends have fabulous seats for the show! And we hope YOU will make your plans to be in one of those seats!

Not only will we enjoy this festive, fanciful holiday tradition (that features three all-new tap numbers just for Nashville audiences), but we top off the day with another wonderful event: the Pam Tillis Holiday Dinner at Opryland Hotel. That's right! We enjoy Christmas dinner with all the trimmings as The Grand Ole Opry's newest member serenades us with her favorite holiday tunes.

We plan on departing Muscle Shoals by noon, arriving in Nashville with plenty of time to get settled for the 3:30 PM matinee. Dinner is immediately following the show. We should return home by approximately 10 PM.

Call Karen Johnson and make your reservation as soon as possible to avoid disappointment! Your final payment is due no later than Thursday, October 20.
